A MESSAGE FROM REV. KEN HOBBS EASTER DAY!

A very Happy Easter to you all and welcome to our Easter morning Celebration at St Johns and at home. Easter is more than chocolate eggs and fluffy bunnies- it is the historical and foundational hope of the Christian Gospel. This morning's service is a combination of our two congregations and includes a simple celebration of Holy Communion. The Order of Service this morning will be on service sheets available at the door.

Christ is risen He is risen indeed Hallelujah!

God bless you

Ken

HOT CROSS BUNS

Thank you to all those who came along on Maundy Thursday to hand out Hot Cross Buns to commuters at Stoneleigh Station with our friends from Stoneleigh Baptist Church. It was nice to be able to do this again after a two year break. Many thanks to Sue
